1. The Vendor has the absolute right to revise the tender notice, the tender documents and the annexes from time to time without informing tenderers individually. The Vendor advises tenderers to check and ensure before submission of tender that the latest version of the tender notice, tender documents and annexes has been used.
 2. The Vendor does not undertake and is under no obligation to review, consider or accept the highest offer or any offer at all for the purchase of any specified residential property. The Vendor has the absolute right to withdraw from the sale of any specified residential property at any time before the acceptance of any offer. The Vendor has the absolute right to accept any offer at or before the closing time of the tender. The Vendor has the absolute right to change the closing date and/or time of the tender and/or the place where the sale will take place in respect of all or any of the specified residential properties from time to time by amending and/or issuing the Sales Arrangements.
 3. The Vendor has the absolute right to accept or reject any offer for the purchase of any specified residential property. Although a specified residential property may be available for tender on a date of sale, it may become unavailable during that date of sale because the Vendor may accept a previous tender for that specified residential property after the close of such previous tender exercise. In such event, the Vendor will reject other offer(s) for that specified residential property.
 4. The tender sale of a specified residential property is subject to availability. Where the Vendor has accepted the tender for a specified residential property, no tender sale of that specified residential property will be carried out on the subsequent date(s) of sale. Persons interested in submitting tenders for the specified residential properties are reminded to read the latest register of transactions so as to ascertain whether a particular specified residential property is still available for tender on a date of sale.

Prospective tenderer will not be notified separately of the arrangement.
 6. Prospective purchasers will be offered to view the selected specified residential property(ies), or comparable residential property(ies) if it is not reasonably practicable for the selected specified residential property(ies) to be viewed by the prospective purchasers, before entering into the preliminary agreement for sale and purchase.
